

PHI 78/22 National Joint Replacement Register levy imposed on 30 November 2022

Invoices are now being sent to sponsors for the National Joint Replacement Register (NJRR) levy for the levy imposition date of 30 November 2022.

Date published:

2 December 2022

Type:

PHI circular

PHI circular type:

Prostheses announcement

Audience:

Health sector

National Joint Replacement Register levy imposed on 30 November 2022

The NJRR is administered by Australian Orthopaedic Association (AOA), and is funded under the Commonwealth grant agreement. The funds for the agreement are fully cost-recovered from the sponsors of the joint replacement prostheses listed on the Prostheses List, by collecting the NJRR levies on an annual basis.

The Department has issued invoices for these levies to the relevant sponsors.
